

Hope Mackenzie Award

Awards History

Established by The PIDIM in 2010 to honour the memory of long time PIDIM Member and Professional Interior Designer, Hope Mackenzie; who passed away in 2009.

Hope was beyond devoted her career, which comprised of her teaching positions at U of M, her position in Accommodations at PWGSC and her interior design practice, along with her association commitments, Hope was equally and passionately devoted to her family and friends. Hope defined the word “friend” and could always be counted on to help with whatever need you had.
